JUNEAU COUNTY CODE OF ETHICS

SECTION 1.0 - DECLARATION OF POLICY

The proper operation of county government demands that:

- (1) county officials and employees be independent,
impartial and responsible to the people;
- (2) decisions be made in the proper channels of the county governmental structure;
- (3) county offices should not be used for personal gain;
- (4) County business should be conducted in such a way so as to re-enforce the public's confidence in its integrity.

In recognition of these fundamental principles, there is hereby created a code of ethics for Juneau County to establish ethical guidelines regarding what conduct is appropriate and redress violations under this code.

SECTION 2.0 - PURPOSE

The purpose of this code is to establish ethical standards of conduct for all county officials and employees by identifying those acts or actions that are not compatible with the best interest of the county. Because representatives of the county are drawn from society, they cannot and should not be without all personal and economic interest in the decisions and policies of government.

Citizens who serve as county officials and employees retain their rights as citizens to personal and economic interests. Therefore, the standards of ethical conduct for county officials and employees must distinguish between minor and inconsequential conflicts which are unavoidable in a free society and those conflicts which are substantial and material.

County officials and employees have a right to:

- (a) engage in employment and professional or business activities, other than official duties, in order to support themselves and their families;
- (b) maintain continuity in their professional or business activities;
- (c) maintain investments or activities which do not conflict with specific provisions of this code.

The provisions of this code, and such rules and regulations which may be established are to be interpreted in the context of the above principles and are deemed to be in the best interest of the public.

SECTION 3.0 - RESPONSIBILITY OF PUBLIC OFFICE

County officials and employees are agents of public purpose and hold office to serve the public interest. They are bound to uphold the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin and to carry out efficiently and impartially all laws of the United States, the State of Wisconsin and Juneau County. Further, they are bound to observe in their official acts, the standards of ethics set forth in this code and to faithfully discharge the duties of their office. The public interest must be their primary concern.

SECTION 4.0 - COVERAGE

This code governs all county officials, whether elected or appointed, paid or unpaid, including members of boards, committees and commissions, department heads or other county employees that have management, purchasing and other discretionary duties. This code also covers the following employment positions:
